Sugar Skulls come up short

SIOUX FALLS, South Dakota – The Tucson Sugar Skulls inaugural season came to an end on the road Sunday when it fell, 50-47, to the Sioux Falls Storm in a first-round Indoor Football League playoff game.

It was a game that had seven lead changes, but the Storm, the No. 3 seed in the IFL, pulled out the victory on the strength of back-to-back scores in the decisive third quarter when they took a lead they never relinquished.

Trailing by nine points late in the fourth quarter, the Sugar Skulls got within striking distance, down three points, when relief quarterback Matt Behrendt ran the ball in from the 2-yard line. There was 1:16 left on the clock. An onside kick failed, and the Storm was able to run out the clock.

The Sugar Skulls end their season despite putting up their second-highest offensive output of the year with 311 total yards. Quarterback Jake Medlock got the start and was an efficient 22 of 25 passing for 271 yards, also a season high. He threw six touchdown passes.

"I thought we played well," said Head Coach Marcus Coleman. "When you're playing a team like Sioux Falls and playing in their building, it's always going to be a tough, tight game.

"We just didn't make enough plays when it counted," Coleman said. "Give them credit. They made plays when it counted."

Tucson finishes its first season with a 7-8 overall record after finishing at .500 in the regular season, good for a tie for fifth place in the IFL with the Nebraska Danger. The Sugar Skulls were the No. 6 seed in the playoffs because of a regular-season loss to the Danger.

"For the most part, we had a successful season being it was the first year, building it from the ground up, and making it to the playoffs," Coleman said. "We've really got a lot to build on. The foundation has been set.

"I know we finished 7-7 but we made the playoffs," Coleman added. "We're the first team to do that as an expansion team. That's the foundation. Now the guys that come back and the new guys that come in know what the expectation is. The expectation is to make the playoffs again and trying to make a deeper run."

Jake Medlock's six touchdown passes against Sioux Falls were a season high and gave him 39 on the season.

Notes & Numbers

- Medlock's six touchdown passes were a season high. He threw 25 TD passes in his last six games, throwing five in one game and four twice. His 33 TD passes in the regular season ranked him sixth in the league despite playing in only 12 of the Sugar Skulls' 14 regular-season games. He missed the regular-season finale with a toe injury.
- The two-headed quarterback combination of Medlock and Behrendt threw 59 touchdown passes and only eight interceptions, including the playoff game. Their average of 158.7 yards passing per game in the regular season was good for third in the IFL.
- The six touchdown passes against Sioux Falls were split up evenly among three receivers, Jeremiah Harris, Rico Brown and Shaq Curenton. Harris led the Sugar Skulls with 86 yards receiving. Brown ended the season with a touchdown catch in seven straight games.
- The Sugar Skulls had the best season result of the four teams that were added to the Indoor Football League for 2019. The San Diego Strike Force was the only other first-year team. Bismarck and Quad City came to the IFL from the Champions Indoor Football league. Tucson edged out Quad City for the sixth playoff spot by defeating the Steamwheelers in the regular-season finale.
